FLOUR PACKING MACHINE 25-50 KG DOUBLE WEIGHING DOUBLE SPOUT- APPLICATION OVERVIEW

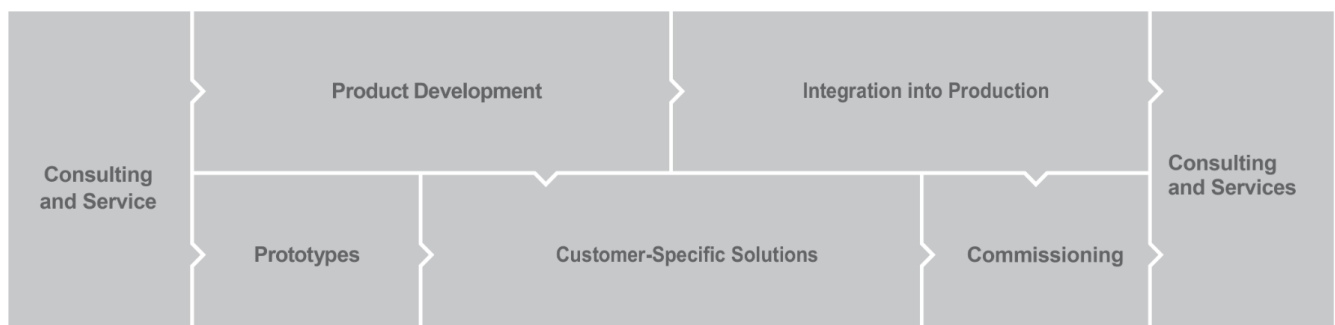

The SE-PRB-25/50 Flour Packing Machine (Double Weighing - Double Spout) by Sediroglu Group is a high-capacity industrial packaging solution designed for efficient and simultaneous bagging of flour and fine powder products. This system is ideal for modern production facilities where flexibility, speed, and continuous operation are essential. Equipped with two independent weighing units and dual discharge spouts, the machine enables simultaneous packaging of two different products or product grades. For example, one station can pack wheat flour while the other handles semolina, or different quality grades such as premium and standard flour can be processed at the same time. This dual-operation capability significantly increases production efficiency and operational flexibility. The SE-PRB-25/50 is engineered for stable and continuous industrial performance. Its advanced weighing technology ensures high accuracy, while the dual spout system provides fast and controlled bag filling. The machine minimizes downtime, reduces labor requirements, and optimizes production flow. Constructed with chrome and HRP vibration-resistant metals, the machine offers long service life and reliable operation even in demanding environments. Its modular and hygienic design allows easy integration into existing production lines while ensuring simple maintenance and long-term operational efficiency.
